

ANNUAL LABORATORY COAT DRIVE DONATION OPPORTUNITIES

BECOME A SUPPORTER and empower the next generation of STEM professionals!

By supporting to this annual event, you'll help students at Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) alleviate the cost of laboratory material required for their core science classes throughout their college tenure.

So far, we have gifted 40 HBCU students laboratory coats. This year, we will be partnering with the North Carolina Central University College of Health and Sciences to target more students, and we need your help!

Choose the ways you'd like to support our efforts below!
